

“Children need many caring adults in their lives.”

“Young people need consistent messages from adults in their lives.”

- quotes from 2002 Fairfax County School District message to the community

DO YOU WANT TO HELP?

If so, then you'll want to attend this workshop:

PARENT as COACH

Helping Your Teen Build a Life of Confidence, Courage and Compassion

SEPT. 21, 2002
8:30am – 12:30pm

Prince of Peace Lutheran Church
8304 Old Keene Mill Road, Springfield, VA 22153
$79/ individual, $125/couple

Carey Coaching is pleased to sponsor Diana Haskins, author of Parent as Coach, for her only Washington, DC area training this fall. This invaluable 4-hour workshop shows parents how to stay connected during the teen years and how to use that connection to help their teenagers create lives of confidence, courage and compassion.

PARENT as COACH delivers modern-day coaching "tools" and gives you easy to understand skills and practices that help your teen:

- believe in themselves and their potential
- have control over healthy decisions for themselves
- uncover their positive values and create life-long standards
- feel a sense of optimism
- become motivated to contribute

PARENT as COACH features the SEVEN WAYS TO COACH YOUR TEEN:

Respect, Listen, Understand, Appreciate,
Support, Promote Responsibility, and Nurture Independence.
